

We want XM Radio to retain the right to broadcast weather and traffic. As long distance drivers we need to have information about weather and traffic in cities we are driving through. This is not available through local radio to audiences many miles from their cities.